George Hutchinson Committed Suicide While Suffering From Serious Disease

George W. Hutchinson, who lived on a farm north of Melbern, killed himself last Thursday morning while suffering from temporary aberration resulting from an attack of cerebral hemorrhage. He was stricken the evening before and became unconscious. A physician was sent for and restored him to consciousness, but he complained of intense pain in his head. In the morning while his sister, who was keeping house for him, was out, and a younger brother engaged in work about the barn, they both heard a pistol shot and hurried to the house. There they found Mr. Hutchinson dead with a bullet hole in his head. He was about forty years old and unmarried. His sister's husband and a brother are in service abroad and it is thought that he suffered a great deal from the worry of the war. He was well known and respected here.

Dear Arlene, Want you to know that I did receive your e-m, so you're doing fine with this hi-tech stuff. I had a young man here this morning because my old one will not be Y2K complianat. So, he will upgrade it for me and do a couple more things that need to be done.

Thanks so much for calling, I do appreciate it. I'm awfully glad that you will have graveside rites. The newspaper made it sound like there would be nothing at all.

Wish we cousins could all get together sometine when I'm home. Too bad I didn't pay more attention to Mom and cousin Minnie Kimmel as they did a lot of family "stuff" and of course knew so much more than they wrote as they were double cousins, both Fickle and Wasnich as are most of us around Williams and Defiance Counties and in southern Mich.

I hope these sentences are going to wrap as I am having to do an "enter" at the end of each line. Don't know what I did to cause this so will close and try to fix it.

Gratefully,

Roena

Dear Rowena

I am sorry to inform you that Kathryn passed away last evening (Thursday) around 10:30 P.M. She just stopped breathing. We were there until after 8:30 and we knew she was having breathing problems. I counted only 6 or 7 respirations per minute and she was quite restless. The nurse gave her the medicine prescribed shortly after we left and she told us she was the same at that time. Later they found her not breathing and phoned us. I can not remember if I wrote you when she fell in the bathroom while sitting down on the stool or not, but she fractured her humerus bone in her right arm just below the shoulder joint. This fracture needed surgery to correct. The surgery was not performed because she would not have come through the anesthesia. All I can say further at this time is, that she is in a far far better place now. She was in pain towards to end.

Vance is following her written and oral instructions to be carried out at her death. These include: She is to be cremated; no visiting hours; burial at Trinity Lutheran Cemetery near Ney; graveside service; memorials to Trinity Church; and others pertaining to personl and household belongings, etc.

I know there is more I should write, but right now I am a blank. Judy L. gave me your phone and E - mail number. I don't know what Kathryn would have done without such good neighbors. Oh, by the way, her son never came, never phoned, or anything. The attourney is going to contact him. How sad this is! I certainly do not understand this at all.

Sincerely,
Arlene H.

P.S. I am new on the internet, so I don't know my own E-mail address or where to find it at this time. Maybe it will be on the mail you receive. Maybe.

ASHLEY RESIDE[illegible] KILLED, STRUC[illegible] BY N. Y. C. TRAIN

Joseph Fickle, 75, Had Been Visiting Relatives At Farmer Center

Joseph Fickle, 75, of Ashley, Ind., was killed at Edgerton Monday afternoon when his car was struck by a fast N. Y. C. train. The machine was twisted around the cowcatcher of the locomotive and the victim was badly cut to pieces.

Mr. Fickle had been at Farmer Center visiting his sister, Mrs. Roy Bayes, and was on his way home. He was driving a Model T coupe, and those who saw the accident said that he failed to observe the warning flashes of the signal at the Michigan avenue crossing and drove slowly, about five miles an hour, directly in front of the train. It was No. 6, a fast passenger train which goes through Edgerton at 3:40 and was traveling about 65 miles an hour at the time.

He leaves three sisters and four brothers. The body was taken to the Krill funeral parlors in Edgerton, the burial taking place at Farmer.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Union church at Farmer with Rev. S. R. Aldrich of Stroh, Ind. officiating. Mr. Fickle was born in Pulaski in 1861.

Mr. Fickle was born in Williams county near Pulaski, Aug. 16, 1861 the eldest son in a family of eleven, 7 of whom are living, 3 sisters, Mrs. Cassie Culler, Mrs. Ida Lord and Mrs. Ella Bayes of Farmer, 4 brothers, Clyde of Ft. Wayne, Claud of Evansport, Roy of Quincy and George of New York. His wife, Alice Tressler Fickle, died 10 years ago and their only child died in infancy. Mr. Fickle had worked for the Wabash at Ashley and Montpelier until about 7 years ago. He has lived alone since the death of his wife. The body was taken to the home of his sister Mrs. Ida Lord on Wednesday and funeral services were held at the Union church in Farmer Thursday, Rev. S. R. Aldrich in charge. At his last visit with his sister he planned that the family should come to his home in August to celebrate his 75th birthday and left in a happy mood.
